ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Zimbabwe Government Mine Manager’s Certificate of Competency
1) Submit a letter of recommendation from the Mine Manager that confirms one’s competency / capability.
2) Have at least five “O” Level passes at Grade C. or better including English Language, Mathematics and a Science subject with at least grade B or better. However at the Board’s discretion, the qualification of B or better may be waived. Certified educational certificates to be attached.
3. Pay registration fee.
   Unless otherwise approved by the Board, all candidates for this examination must:
4. Be at least 23 years of age,
5. Have at least five “O” Level passes at Grade C. or better including English Language, Mathematics and a Science subject with at least grade B or better. However at the Board’s discretion, the qualification of B or better may be waived. Certified educational certificates to be attached.
3. Pay registration fee.
   Unless otherwise approved by the Board, all candidates for this examination must:
4. Be at least 20 years of age,
5. Have four years mining experience including one tear of post qualification experience (referred to in 6. below) in a supervisory capacity, acceptable to the Board.
6. Possess a Zimbabwe Government Mining Diploma (ZGMD) or National Diploma (ND) from Zimbabwe School of Mines (ZSOM) or a degree in Mining Engineering or any other qualification acceptable to the Board.
7. Hold a Full Blasting Licence.
8. Submit certified copies of birth certificate and National ID

Zimbabwe Government Mine Surveyor’s Certificate of Competency
1. Submit a letter of recommendation from the Mine Manager that confirms one’s competency / capability.
2. Have at least five “O” Level passes at Grade C. or better including English Language, Mathematics and a Science subject with at least grade B or better. However at the Board’s discretion, the qualification of B or better may be waived. Certified educational certificates to be attached.
3. Pay registration fee.
   Unless otherwise approved by the Board, all candidates for this examination must:
4. Be at least 20 years of age,
5. Have three years mine surveying experience acceptable to the Board.
6. Submit certified copies of birth certificate andNational ID

Zimbabwe Government Mine Engineer’s Diploma
1. Submit a letter of recommendation from the Mine Manager that confirms one’s competency / capability.
2. Have at least five “O” Level passes at Grade C. or better including English Language, Mathematics and a Science subject with at least grade B or better. However at the Board’s discretion, the qualification of B or better may be waived. Certified educational certificates to be attached.
3. Pay registration fee.
   Unless otherwise approved by the Board, all candidates for this examination must:
4. Be at least 23 years of age,
5. Have relevant qualifications as specified in the syllabus of ZGMED (certified copies to be submitted).

Zimbabwe Government Mining Diploma

1. Submit a letter of recommendation from the Mine Manager that confirms one’s competency / capability.
2. Have at least five “O” Level passes at Grade C. or better including English Language, Mathematics and a Science subject with at least grade B or better. However at the Board’s discretion, the qualification of B or better may be waived. Certified educational certificates to be attached.
3. Pay registration fee. Unless otherwise approved by the Board, all candidates for this examination must:
4. Be at least 20 years of age,
5. Have at least three years relevant mining experience acceptable to the Board.
6. Hold a Full Blasting Licence.