

Winston Chitando

Minister of Mines and Mining Development Zimbabwe

- ✓ a seasoned executive whose experience in the mining sector spans close to three decades
- ✓ completed a Bachelor of Accountancy degree from the University of Zimbabwe in November 1984.
- ✓ He completed his college in 1985.
- ✓ In 1984, he joined Anglo American Corporation as a graduate trainee and worked for the group for a total of 11 years.
- ✓ During this period he rose through the ranks to hold various positions and directorships in a number of industrial and mining companies which were part of the Anglo American group.

- ✓ From 1998 to September 2007, he was an Executive Director with responsibility for Finance for both Zimasco (Pvt) Ltd and Mimosa Mining Company
- ✓ was Executive Chairman of Mimosa Holdings since April 1, 2013 till November 2017, having served as Managing Director since October 1, 2007 till March 2013.
- ✓ Served as Chairman of the Platinum Producers Association, Vice President and President of the Chamber of Mines of Zimbabwe.
- ✓ During his corporate career, Mr Chitando sat on various boards including the Zimbabwe School of Mines.
- ✓ appointed Minister of Mines and Mining Development in November 2017.